Pick of the choicest stocks

From CEO's Desk

Sensex breaching 13,000 might no longer be news by the time you read this. The point is different though and it underlines one fact - 'Investor Confidence'. To be sure, this is not a sentiment but is based on factual assessment.

Firstly, strong results posted by the corporates for the 2nd quarter acted as a driver for the market. The difference however is that the 2nd quarter performance has exceeded expectations. Bharati Telecom is a case in point wherein its revenues and PAT for 2nd quarter grew by 61% and 79% respectively on y-o-y basis. These earning figures place the equity valuations at attractive level since investors have already started discounting FY08 earnings as we approach the year-end. Additionally, the August Index of Industrial Production - IIP continued to be strong at 9.7%. With capital goods sector and consumer goods sector growing at 15% yoy, the potential for further corporate growth is imminent.

The other notable feature of this rally has been the revived influx of liquidity in the equity markets post-13th May. To give you a perspective, FII inflows in the stocks markets during June and July had decreased to US$ 105 mn and US$ 252 mn respectively. However, in the changed scenario, the FII inflows again resumed during late August and increased gradually in the subsequent weeks reaching the US$ 1.4 bn mark in October. The liquidity situation is further strengthened if we also incorporate the mutual fund cash component in this argument. As per an available estimate, the cash component in equity schemes of mutual funds stood at around Rs 72 bn (approx $1.60 bn) (as of end Sept '06) waiting to be invested. This aggregate quantum of liquidity could play a catalytic role in sustaining the current momentum.

The debt market on the other hand has been majorly influenced by the recent RBI pronouncement in its monetary policy review. RBI adopted a mildly hawkish stance in its policy review and decided to increase the Repo rate by 25 basis points (bp) to 7.25%. However it left the Reverse repo rate (6%), CRR (5%) and bank rate (6%) untouched. This extended corridor of 125 bps between repo and reverse repo rates could be indicative of a negative bias on liquidity, which is likely to raise the borrowing costs in the near-term. The RBI maintains that inflation rate for FY07 would remain contained within 5-5.5% range. RBI has, however, changed its outlook towards GDP growth rate for FY07, revising it from the previous figure of 7.5-8% to 8%.

Nevertheless, the alluring part is that the government is ensuring financial stability and is committed to even greater reforms. Their aim is to accelerate India's growth rate to 9% during the 11th Five-Year Plan period (2007-12) and further raise it to 10% during the 12th five-year plan. This objective requires the domestic savings rate to increase from the current 28% of the GDP to 32% so as to support the necessary investment mobilization.

In closing, I would like to share the fact that after the success of 'Twin Advantage' and with the introduction of capital protection guidelines, we are geared to launch many more interesting structured products.

Warm Regards

Sandesh Kirkire
Chief Executive Officer.

From the Equity Fund Management Team

Last month Joy for investors continues

After strong gains in the month of August and September, October also proved to be a good month for equity investors. Upward trend in the market continued with Sensex breaching 13000 level for the first time and gaining 4.07% during the month whereas CNX Mid cap index gained by 3.05% during the month. The best performing sectors in the month were IT and banking sector with BSE IT index gaining by 9.75% and BSE Bankex gaining by 7.37% during the month. FMCG and Healthcare sector were laggards with both indices in negative.

Corporate Performance

Major event of the month had been quarterly results. Among the large caps quarterly results for the quarter ended Sept' 06 were slightly better than estimated with majors like Infosys, Reliance, Bharti and Reddy's surprising on the positive. However, there were disappointments from majors like ONGC, ITC, Tata Motors, and Ranbaxy etc.

Tata-Corus deal

The rising ambitions of Indian corporate is clearly reflected in the fact that Tata Steel is looking to acquire a company nearly 4 times its size in terms of steel output. Tata Steel had made a proposal for a possible offer for 100% equity of Corus at 455 pence/share, through a court-administered scheme of arrangement. With the deal valuing Corus' equity at US$8.2bn, a successful acquisition will make it the largest ever by an Indian corporate.

Credit Policy

RBI in its latest policy has left the key benchmark "reverse repo" rate unchanged at 6%. While, the repo rate (rate at which banks borrow from RBI) has been raised by 25bps this is unlikely to have an impact as this is not the benchmark rate. These interest rate moves will be seen as a positive by the markets, which were expecting a hike in the reverse repo rates. RBI has also deferred the timeframe for migration to Basel-II by a year to Mar-08 for banks with international operations and Mar-09 for other banks. This is a positive for PSU banks, which would see a drop of 125-150bps in their capital adequacy on migration to Basel-II as this delay will push back potential equity issuance.

Institutional Activity

FII's were major buyers with net inflows for the month being US$1.5bn (cash segment) and $550mn (F&O segment) (upto Oct 30) compared to inflows of US$1.2mn (cash) and outflow of $615mn (F&O) in Sept '06.

Going Forward:

Given that the structural drivers for India are in place, the outlook for economic growth remains healthy and that should enable the corporate sector to deliver robust revenue and profit growth rates. However after the sharp rally over last three months, valuations relative to long term average are once again not entirely in investor's favor, in the short term.

However, the long term India growth story remains intact. Indian economy remains on track for around 8% growth on the back of changing demographics led consumerism, infrastructure development, and global competitiveness. Longer term investors should continue to look to invest through the SIP route.

#Current reported period in the month

The month of October witnessed a see-saw trend in the movement of gilt prices. Falling US treasury yields, four-month high WPI inflation of 5.26%, tight interbank liquidity due to festive season and expectations of RBI's stance on interest rates, kept bond market volatile.

On the global front, the US FOMC left its benchmark rate unchanged for the third time to 5.25%, sighting slow economic growth partly reflected by a cooling housing market. Median prices of new home sales plunged 9.7% last month, its sharpest fall since December 1970.

US durable goods order jumped by 7.8% last month much higher than market expectations of a 2% rise. However, excluding transportation durable goods order rose just 0.1% against expectations of a 1% gain. Also the GDP growth for the third quarter slowed to seasonally adjusted annual rate of 1.6%, against expectations of a 2% growth. Lesser hawkish statements by the Fed combined with softer incoming data pulled the yield on the US 10 yr treasuries sharply down to 4.67%.

On the domestic front, India's Index of Industrial Production (IIP) rose by 9.7% in August 2006 as compared to a 7.6% rise in the same month of the previous year. The manufacturing sector continued to grow, registering 11.1% rise in August 2006. However activity slowed down when compared with previous month (July 2006) IIP growth of 12.4% due to output getting affected by monsoon flooding. The WPI inflation for week ended Oct 14 witnessed a sharp rise to 5.26% owing to sustained rise in prices of manufactured and food products. As on Oct 13, the broad money supply (M3) grew by 19%.

At the mid term review of RBI's Annual Policy, the central bank hiked the Repo rate by 25 bps to 7.25%, leaving other key rates unchanged. Inconclusive evidence of overheating in the economy with bulging demand pressures on one hand and the inability to gauge the size and direction of economy's potential output on the other hand, led the RBI to adopt a vigilant approach. However it warned of elevated and uncertain asset/commodity prices, which would warrant continuous monitoring of Y-o-Y inflation growth. It also raised the GDP growth forecast for 2006-07 to around 8.00% and alerted that the growth in monetary and credit aggregates could exceed initial indicative projections.

Outlook

Going forward we expect gilt prices to harden on the back of hawkish statements made by the RBI Governor. Domestic liquidity could improve due to funds returning back to the system after the festive season, which could lend support to overnight rates. Rs. 9000 crs gilt auction for Nov 3 and Rs. 5000 crs gilt auction scheduled between Nov 17 - 24, could have impact on market sentiments and push bond yields higher. Market participants shall closely monitor the domestic inflation after RBI laid greater emphasis on consumer inflation for appropriate policy responses. We expect the 10 year sovereign bond to remain in the range of 7.60% - 7.90%.

Specific Risk Factors : The investors of the scheme shall bear the recurring expenses of the Scheme in addition to the expenses of the underlying schemes. Hence the investor under the Scheme may receive lower pre-tax returns than what they may receive if they had invested directly in the underlying schemes in the same proportions. • The portfolio disclosure of the Scheme will be limited to providing the particulars of the underlying schemes where the Scheme has invested and will not include the investments made by the underlying schemes. • The portfolio of the Scheme will normally be comprised of schemes of Kotak Mahindra Mutual Fund and other schemes from the recommended list provided by the Designated Agency. Thought adequate care will be taken to ensure that the methodology adopted by the Designated Agency is proper, there may be any analytical error (like assigning overweightage or underweightage to various risk-returns parameters), execution error etc. by the Designated Agency, which may result in the sub-optimal performance of the Scheme. • Since the Scheme proposes to invest at least in 5 underlying schemes, the significant underperformance in even one of the underlying schemes may adversely affect the performance of the Scheme. Investments in underlying equity/debt schemes will have all the risks associated with such schemes.
